Headline:
Rain edging slowly north, but far north staying bright.

Today:
Mainly dry in the north with bright spells, best sunshine in far north. Cloudy in the south with some rain or drizzle, this heavy at first but turning light and patchy, this edging north to reach all but far north.

Tonight:
It will be cloudy with occasional outbreaks of rain. This mainly light but a few heavier bursts likely overnight, when southerly or southeasterly winds will strengthen.

Saturday:
A cloudy start with some rain then brightening up in the morning, with sunny intervals and the odd shower. Some heavier showers possible by evening. Gales in northwest. Mild.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Sunshine, showers for Sunday, windy and quite mild. Bright with showers on Monday, wintry in north later. Sunny but cold on Tuesday, snow showers in north and west coast.
